

Reviving the Creed of Tawheed: The Religion of Humiliative Surrender (Istislaam)

by Shaykh Husayn ibn Mahmood (ha)

Translated by Brother Abul-Fadhl ash-Shaamee

All praise is due to Allaah, who sent forth for the creation, Muhammad. All praise is due to Allaah, the One, the Single, the Eternal, He begets not, nor was He begotten, and there is none co-equal or comparable to him; He Who has no partner in His kingdom, Who is deserving of the worship of the creation, Who is not in need of the creation, and all the creation is poor and in need of Him... Then peace and blessings upon the one who was sent with the clear truth, and upon all his family and companions, and those who followed them in good until the Judgement Day... And to proceed:

Many of the conditions and rules that are derived in Fiqh, Creed and other fields, are derived by the Muslims' scholars through Istiqraa' and Tatabbu' (following up on an issue, researching all the relevant texts, until a rule can be established from this research due to the commonality or constant found). They then establish it and describe it in an organized fashion to simplify for the Muslims its memorization and remove the need for those after them to do the same research...

I decided in our times to follow up the condition of the rulers of the Muslims' lands to figure out the rules, fundamentals, and pillars of their false religion of Istislaameeyah (humiliative surrender) so that it can be accessible to everyone and so others won't need to make the same research thereafter. So I say, seeking Allaah's aid:

As for the rulers' pillars of faith, it is:

1. To believe in the American government (in its lordship, godhood, names and attributes)...
2. To believe in the secret hands behind the American government...
3. To believe in the ambassadors of the American government...
4. To believe in the laws and democracy of the American government...
5. To believe in the reward and punishment from the American government...
6. To believe in the decree of the American government, whether good or evil...

As for the ruler's five pillars of Istislaam (humiliative surrender):

1. To testify that there is no god but the American president, and that his ambassador is the messenger of this god...
2. To establish the obligatory obedience while facing the White House (more than five times a day)...
3. To give Jizyah to the American government...
4. Fasting eternity with one's tongue from saying anything negative regarding the American government (even if just one word)...
5. Pilgrimage to the White House, for whoever is capable or incapable of doing so...

As for the Ten Nullifications of this Istislaam (humiliative surrender):

(Note: There is no difference in these nullifiers - according to the rulers - between the joker or serious person, nor between the scared or coerced. All of it is from the greatest dangers, most common nullifiers. So the Mustaslim (follower of this false religion of humiliative surrender) must be wary and fearful of it for himself...)

1. Associating partners with America in worship, due to the statement of Bush (may he get what he deserves from the Muslims' God): "Whoever is not with us, then he is against us." From the forms of associating partners with American is to slaughter (Jihaad) for something or someone other than it...

2. Whoever places between him and America intermediaries, that he calls upon or seeks intercession through, or relies upon. If he does not prostrate directly to America, then he has disbelieved according to the consensus of the rulers...
3. Whoever does not do Takfeer (label as Kuffaar) those who associate partners with America, or doubts their Kufir, or corrects their ways, disbelieves. Such as the Mujaahideen and other Muslims, who the rulers label as Khawaarij, and label those who love them or support them as ignorant extremists...
4. Whoever believes that the guidance of someone or something other than America and its organizations are more complete. Or that the rule of something or someone other than it is better, then he is a Kaafir...
5. Whoever hates anything that the American ambassador comes with, or any American diplomat, even if he acts according to it, disbelieves...
6. Whoever mocks anything of America's laws, rules, pillars, rewards, or punishments, disbelieves...
7. The spell and possession of hearts with Islaam, whoever does it or is pleased with it disbelieves... [the author is reversing the nullifier of magic]
8. Aiding and supporting the Muslims and America's enemies against America and its allies...
9. Whoever believes that some people may leave the will of America, like occurred to Ibn Laadin and his brothers, the Mujaahideen, then he is a Kaafir...
10. Turning away from the will and democracy of America, so he does not learn it nor practice it.

The rulers said regarding ruling by other than the "legality" of international law and American law:

"From the clearcut major Kufir is to level the "poor" Islaamic Sharee'ah with what the trustworthy American president revealed, upon the heart of his ambassador and advisors, so as to be from the warners, with a clear English tongue, as a rule between the creation; and to refer to it when the differers differ. This is a contradiction and opposition to the god of the hypocritical rulers... "If you differ over anything, then refer it back to the International Court of Justice which was established by the international Zionist movement..." (Chapter of Hypocrisy: Verse Zero)... [The author is altering a paragraph of an essay by Muhammad bin Ibraaheem Aal ash-Shaykh titled "Ruling by the Law."]

As for their four principles, then they are:

The first principle: To know that the Mujaahideen that America fights affirm that America is the power that has ruled over the throats of the world's hypocrites, and that this does not enter the Mujaahideen into "Istislaam"!... (humiliative surrender)

The second principle: That the rulers do not ask the American diplomats except so that they can intercede on their behalf with the American government and its president... And intercession is two types: One that is negated, and one that is acknowledged:

The negated intercession: What is asked from other than America, in which noone is capable except America, then this is Kufir according to them (the rulers)...

The acknowledged intercession: What is asked from the American diplomats, the intercessor is honored by his intercession, and the one interceded for is he who America approves of and is pleased with his words and actions, after permission is granted. This is what they consider to be correct and what they accept...

The third principle: That the American army appeared amongst people with different views, some who believe in Jihaad with the sword, some who believe in sticking to peaceful Da'wah, and others who believe in helping the needy and cultivating good deeds. America fought against them all and did not differ between them. So these are the enemies of civilization and Western ideals, the disbelievers in the creed of Istislaam (humiliative surrender)...

The fourth principle: That those who associate others with America in our times are worse in their Shirk than the early ones. This is because the earlier ones used to associate in times of hardship and be sincere to America in times of ease. As for those who associate today, their association is constant, in times of hardship and ease. So they always fight against America and reject it, as long as it is upon its condition of disbelieving in their Religion!!...

The three fundamentals:

The rulers said: So if it is said to you, what are the three fundamentals that a person must know? Say: The slave's awareness of his lord, religion, and prophet...

As for the first principle: So if it is said to you, who is your lord? Say: My lord is the president of America, who raised me and raised all the people with his blessings. He is what I worship, I worship none but him. If it is said to you, how did you know your lord? Say: By his strength, power, and conquering over the world, so none is worshipped but he, none is hoped for but he, we fear none but him, we seek refuge from none but him, and we do not slaughter or vow except to him.

The second principle: To know the religion of Istislaam by proofs: And it is to surrender to America with Tawheed, submission to it with obedience, and to disavow from Islaam and its people. And it is three levels: Istislaam, Eemaan, and Ihsaan. Each level has its pillars. We have already mentioned what is specific to the first two. As for the third, it means: to worship the American president as if you see him, but if you don't see him then be certain that his spying mechanisms and intelligence services see you...

The third principle: To know the prophet of America: He is every ambassador or diplomat that the American government sends forth to renew the covenant of obedience to it.

Walaa' and Baraa', love and hatred:

From the great principles and pillars of Istislaam in the religion of the rulers: the creed of alliance and disavowal, love and hatred, for America's sake:

As for the creed of Walaa' and Baraa': It is to befriend/love whoever America befriends/loves and to take as enemies whoever America takes as enemies. From the examples for this: When America was an enemy to the Russians, the rulers were enemies to the atheist infidel communist Russians (and all the other labels that they rung our ears with). Then when America decided to better its relationship with Russia, the rulers opened up embassies for the Russians in their lands, received their diplomats, and established economic and political relations with them!!...

And when the Raafidah were enemies to America, during Khomieni's days: The Raafidah were innovative Kuffaar according to the rulers' media. When the relations between the Raafidah and American began to improve, these rulers opened up embassies for Iran in their countries, and the Raafidah began to be friends and neighbors, with full friendship and support!!...

As for the issue of loving and hating for America, then this is its proofs, they are clearer than the sun in the day light: So when the youth were fighting the Soviets (America's enemies) and America approved of their actions, the rulers opened the gates for the youth and labelled them Mujaahideen, defenders of the Religion, and the defenders of the Muslims' lands!! When America suddenly reversed its stance towards them: The rulers labeled the Mujaahideen of yesterday as Khawaarij, naive youth, and ignorant!!...

And when Saddam was fighting the Raafidah, the American enemies in Iran, the rulers used to label him "the sword of the Arabs", describing him as the true knight which no dust stops. When America ended with him and wanted to change him, the "sword of the arabs" became a Ba'thee disbeliever in all the Religion, it is an obligation upon the Muslims to wage war against him and free the people from his evil!!...

This is a brief introduction to the creed of these rulers: They rule their lands with America's laws, teaching their sons the rites of worship and obedience to America, dedicating their money and time to please America, and whoever doubts their way or religion then he is a disbeliever in the religion of "Istislaam", the rulers will not accept from him any good or charity. The disbeliever in the creed of "Istislaam" according to them, his wealth, blood, and honor is Halaal!!...

Note:

If the rulers saw this creed, they would make it a curriculum with the new reforms for the students so as to be in accordance with the American religion. So as to prevent them from such, we say: The rights of printing, copying, and distributing this are preserved (for the Muslims not the Istislaameeyeen). So it is not permissible for the rulers to use these words - including those who ally with them in the creed of Istislaam - for any reason at all...

O Allaah, Lord of Jibreel, Meekaa'eel, and Israafeel, accept us amongst those who single You out in worship, those who reject the religion of surrender and submission to other than you... O Allaah aid the Mujaahideen, the enemies of America and the enemies of the hypocrites, and establish them in the earth, O Lord of the creation... O Allaah Preserve your righteous slaves, and blind the eyes of the Kuffaar from them...

Our last words are all praise is due to Allaah, Lord of the creation. And peace and blessing be upon Muhammad, and all his family and companions...
